Act I and prologue

After not being invited to Princess Aurora's christening, the evil fairy Carabosse casts a curse on the child: she will die at 16 from pricking her finger with a knitting spindle. Fortunately, the Lilac fairy has the power to mitigate the spell. Instead of dying, Aurora will fall into a deep slumber from which only the kiss of a prince could wake her...

Act II

100 years have passed. Prince Désiré has yet to find his princess. One evening, the Lilac Fairy summons a vision of Aurora and the Prince sees his beloved maiden in the enchanting Princess. He asks the Lilac Fairy to take him to her and awakens her with a kiss.

SWAN LAKE

CAPTURED LIVE
 IN MOSCOW

Sunday, February 5
 4PM

A ballet of ultimate beauty and a score of unparalleled perfection born at the Bolshoi in 1877. In the dual role of white swan Odette and her rival black swan Odile, prima ballerina Svetlana Zakharova exudes both vulnerability and cunning through superb technical mastery, alongside the powerful and emotional Siegfried, Denis Rodkin.

A CONTEMPORARY EVENING

LIVE
 FROM MOSCOW

Sunday, March 19
 4PM

This encounter between some of the best dancers in the world and masters of contemporary choreography results in an outstanding synthesis of bringing Robbins's energy, Lander's virtuosity, and Ratmansky's witty brilliance to a new level.
